NEW NEW WESTERN®

The Ultimate Tenant Screening Checklist

Bv New Western

Pre-Screening
<ul> <li>□ Gather contact information and reason for moving</li> <li>□ Note any red flags in behavior or responses</li> </ul>
Rental Application
Use a detailed application covering employment, income, rental history, references, and consent for background checks
☐ Collect supporting documentation like pay stubs and photo ID
Background Checks
<ul> <li>□ Run a credit check and look for red flags</li> <li>□ Conduct a criminal history background check</li> <li>□ Contact previous landlords for rental references</li> </ul>
Tenant Interview
<ul> <li>Meet in person to get a sense of responsibility and character</li> <li>Ask about job stability, rent payment ability, pet ownership, smoking habits, past evictions, and timeline</li> </ul>
Final Decision
<ul> <li>Review all information gathered from pre-screening, application, background checks, and interview</li> <li>Make an objective decision based on any red flags and their ability to pay rent reliably</li> <li>Choose the tenant that is the best fit for your property</li> </ul>

Avoid discriminatory questions and decisions. Treat all applicants equally. Document everything thoroughly. Leverage technology like online applications and screening services when possible. But don't rely solely on technology - consider all factors.
